

What to do in the Cape Coral, Fort Myers Area

Besides the beaches, the Gulf of Mexico and Golf Courses, SW Florida offers a lot to offer.

For example:

Fort Myers – Edison Ford Museum – it is not only a museum, it is a botanical garden and seasonal events will invite you to travel into the past.

<http://www.efwefla.org/home.asp>

Down Town Fort Myers – River District – just (almost) totally restored, hosts events from Art Walk, Music Walk, Bike Night and small restaurants and bar invite you to enjoy this historical district.

<http://www.cityftmyers.com/Default.aspx?tabid=544>

Imaginarium – a hands on Museum for little and larger kids

<http://www.imaginariumfortmyers.com/>

Broadway Palm Dinner Theatre is a different theatre experience

<http://broadwaypalm.com/Content/default.asp>

Barbara B Mann Performance Arts offers great performances for young and old

<http://www.bbmanna.com/>

Calusa Nature Center shows nature animals and plants, offers broad walks and planetarium with light shows

<http://www.calusanature.com/>

The Shell Factory, offers a zoo and other fun activities. The walzing waters shows are always worth a trip

<http://www.shellfactory.com/>

Always a lot of fun – Sun Splash Waterpark

<http://www.capecoral.net/SunSplash/Home/tabid/979/Default.aspx>

Cape Coral Yacht Club offers a small beach, a fishing pier, Olympic sized pool, tennis courts, Marina, and always a lot of fun sunset ceremonies

<http://www.capecoral.net/Government/ParksRecreation/ParksFacilities/RecreationCentersAttractions/YachtClubCommunityPark/tabid/210/language/en-US/Default.aspx>

And of course there are a lot of parks, please click on link below for a park for your needs – here you will also find dog friendly beaches and parks

<http://www.leeparks.org/>

Babcock Ranch – experience Nature and local wild life

<http://www.babcockwilderness.com/>

Kayacking

<http://www.kayak-captiva.com/>

<http://www.gulfcoastkayak.com/>

Fort Myers Beach offers a lot

Sunset Cruises, Dolphin Watches, Ships to Key West, Everglades Tours, Deep Sea fishing and all the “usual” beach activities

<http://www.fortmyersbeach.org/what-to-do.php>

<http://www.bobbygsfishingcharters.com/>

<http://www.fortmyerstours.com/?event=offer.detail&offerId=5853>

<http://www.evergladesadventure.com/>

Shopping:

Flea Market – a flea market where you will need days to walk through

<http://fleamall.com/index.html>

Edison Mall, Fort Myers

<http://www.simon.com/mall/default.aspx?ID=129>

Bell Tower Shops

<http://www.thebelltowershops.com/index.cfm>

Tanger Outlets

<http://www.thebelltowershops.com/index.cfm>

Miramar Outlets

<http://www.miramaroutlets.com/>

Gulf Coast Town Center - Mall

<http://www.gulfcoasttowncenter.com/shop/gulf.nsf/index>

This is only a brief summary of what we can do in the area around Cape Coral, Fort Myers – I am sure I missed a lot but I will update the list frequently, so please check back soon.

Looking for residential Real Estate, here is a free and with no obligations access to the MLS System – a central data base for all Real Estate Listings; Here you can enter your criteria, save your favorites and listingbook will show you all currently listed properties which meet your criteria best. You can also change your criteria if you like

<http://monikawilson.listingbook.com/>

If you are looking for commercial real estate, please send me an email.

Monika.wilson@century21.com

Monika Wilson

Century 21 Sunbelt

2378 Surfside Blvd

Cape Coral, Florida

<http://www.spotfloridarealestate.com>